GILLARD'S SHEEP DIP
NON-POISONOUS
GILLARD'S
DIP
PREVENTS AND CURES SCAB

This Dip is most carefully prepared by the latest improved methods and can be used with COLD WATER Supplied to the Prince of Wales's Farm at SANDRINGHAM TESTIMONIALS.
From Mr. JOHN J. MARON, Capilla del Sator, June 29, 1881--The dip which you sent me I used according to directions, and I can assure you that it gave the desired result. During four years of practical experience of curing scab in sheep, I have seen many specific dips, but I consider Gillard's the only one that gives complete satisfaction. It improves the quality and promotes the growth of the wool. For efficiency, economy and facility of application, I prefer it to any dip I have used.
From Mr. JAMES M. THOMAS, Estancia Santa Ines, Monte, June 29, 1881--Having given a good trial to Gillard's Dip, I have much pleasure in bearing my testimony to its valuable quality as a Sheep Dip. It destroys all insect life with which sheep are infected, mixes readily in cold water, does not injure the hands, and softens all hard parts. I shall strongly recommend it whenever an opportunity offers. As regards the cheapness, it should command a good sale.
From Mr. Wm. Petty, Estancia Caro, Colonia, S. J. P., 20, 1881--
I feel great pleasure in informing you that the sheep dip applied by you to me under the name of Gillard's Sheep Dip had surprising results on my English long-wooled rams; it has kept them entirely free from scab after only twice using it, although those rams have been constantly running in a flock of scabby sheep. I intend for the first time to give a trial with the whole of my English breed of sheep as soon as I have them there, as I feel satisfied I shall with that dip keep them free from scab.
From Messrs. Patrick Minton, Junr., Chiswick House, and James Murray, Capilla del Sator, Sept. 18, 1881--
It gives us great pleasure to inform you that, after giving a good trial to Gillard's non-poisonous sheep dip, we can pronounce it to be the best specific we have used as yet, and we are fully determined for the future to use no other remedy.

loured the whole of his subsequent career. To its influence may be traced that eclectic rather than national character stamped upon his writings. Returning to America in 1829, he entered upon the duties of his professorship, and while discharging them also became a frequent contributor to the "North American Review." Mr. Ticknor, the historian of the literature of Spain, having resigned the professorship of the modern languages and belles lettres in Harvard University, Mr. Longfellow was called upon to succeed him, but before entering upon his new duties, he again visited Europe, acquiring a knowledge of the Scandinavian languages and literature. From 1836 Mr. Longfellow has held his professorship in Harvard University. The following is a list of his works, and the dates of their publication:—Coplas de Manrique (1833), Outremor (1835), Hyperion (1839), Voices of the Night (1839), Ballads and other Poems (1841), Poems on Slavery (1842), The Spanish Student (1843), The Belfry of Bruges (1846), Evangeline (1847), Kavanagh (1849), The Seaside and the Riverside (1849), The Golden Legend (1851), The Song of Hiawatha (1855) and The Courtship of Miles Standish (1858).

CITY OF BUENOS AIRES TRAMWAYS

The capital of this successful Company consists of £350,000 ordinary share capital and £116,000 debenture capital. But the Company have really a larger cash capital than these figures represent, for during the past 10 years they have taken out of revenue from time to time sums which now aggregate about £40,000, put to a contingent fund, which has been used for valuable capital purposes. An important measure is now announced to the Proprietors, in the annexed official circular, by which the capital account will be corrected in the issue of shares to represent the contingent fund. In short, 10,000 shares of £5 each are to be issued, raising the share capital from £350,000 to £400,000, and the Shareholders will have the benefit of subscribing for these shares at the price of £1 per share, the shares being treated as fully paid up, that is, £5 per share.

There are now 70,000 shares of £5 each. If the proposed measure is carried, and of course it will be, being both sound and beneficial, there will be 10,000 more shares, or in all 80,000 shares of £5 each. The Shareholders will pay £10,000 for the 10,000 new shares, representing with the £40,000 contingent fund £50,000, the full capital of the 10,000 shares.

The dividend for the first half of 1881 was 4s. 6d. per £5 share. What it will be for the second half of the year of course we do not yet know, but the traffic has increased, and is increasing, in a measure owing to the wise expenditure of the contingent fund for most useful and reproductive capital purposes. It remains only to congratulate the Proprietors upon their position. They will have one new share to seven old, and will have to pay £1 for each new share.

"4, Gt. Winchester St. Buildings, London, E.C., March 8th, 1882. CITY OF BUENOS AIRES TRAMWAYS COMPANY, LIMITED."

"During the past ten years various sums have been charged to revenue and placed to the 'Contingent Fund,' which now amount to £39,934 14s. 7d. The money thus applied, as has been frequently stated in the Shareholders, has been made available for capital purposes, thus avoiding the necessity for the issue of new shares. The Directors are of opinion that this amount, which legitimately belongs to the Shareholders, should now be represented by shares of the Company and it was therefore decided at a meeting of the Board, held to-day, to take the steps necessary for that object. Resolutions will accordingly be submitted to the annual meeting in April, to add to the Contingent Fund the sum of £65,561, thus raising it to £400,000, and to increase the share capital of the Company to £400,000 by the creation of 8,000 shares of £5 each, 2,000 shares of the fourth issue remain unallotted, and these, with the £9,000 to be now created, will give 10,000 shares for distribution amongst the Shareholders. Upon these shares it is proposed to call up £1 per share on allotment, and to issue them as 'fully paid up,' 'pro rata,' to the Proprietors who may be upon the register upon the closing of the books for the purpose. The amount at the credit of the Contingent Fund will then be transferred to the share capital account, thus completing the full amount of the nominal value of the new shares."

"The division will give one new share for every seven now in existence; and upon the special resolutions being passed and confirmed, all existing shares held in a multiple of seven the interest of Shareholders entitled to a fraction of a share will be duly protected.—By order, John Heaton, Secretary." Herepath.

PARIS LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

March 15th. Of the three boys out for the day, and who visited the Louvre picture gallery and amused themselves throwing paint at some 'tableaux,' one only has been found guilty. Being under age his papa, a wealthy shopkeeper, will have to pay the little bill. The Bouffes-Parisiens Theatre has brought out 'Cocquelin,' a comic opera in three acts. The libretto is founded on a vaudeville by the brothers Cognard, written nearly half a century ago; the music by Louis Varney. The plot is confusion itself. Time: Louis XIV. and a war between the Spaniards and French, where a barber 'gives a rendezvous to his fiancée,' and finds instead a Señora. Documents also reveal a political conspiracy. The music is elegant without being common, place, and has an Offenbach ring without being operette. The air of the 'Filles d'Alcala' is pretty, and the military retreat, where the choruses are harmoniously married to fife and drums, though not original, is pleasing. There is a duet, where one part is in French and the other in Spanish; it was honoured with a 'bis.' The three 'morceaux' may be added a nuptial chorus, for as before the deluge there is marrying and giving in marriage in the plot, and a Spanish rhapsody. The costumes and scenery are good, and the piece is fairly interesting.

The second state ball at the Elysée was even more crowded than the first. M. Grévy and his household are now as much up in these matters as Louis XIV. and all the 'tabourins' du monde. The diplomatic and official world mustered in great force, the ex-Queen of Spain received homage that must have made her chapman, M. Grévy rub his eyes and strokes his budding patriarchal beard. She is a very popular personage here, her democratic affability and the military frankness of her manners generally secure her friends. The pupils of the School of Arts and Manufactures, instead of a uniform, displayed a little busy bee in gold, embroidered on a black rosette. The predominance of military uniforms added much splendour to the ball. Young ladies, if they had not much space for waltzing, only resumed the longer stationary, clasped together vis-a-vis, while the usual covering of lace trimmings by spurs and awkward feet generally, afforded occasion for the fair to display an angelic turn of mind and a heart for any fate. The supper was sumptuous. It was rumoured that Gambetta lent his famous cook Trompette for the occasion, and that which may explain the Redan and Malakoff assaults on all the delicacies of the season.

There is a movement on foot to make the hospitals independent of all official aid, and to enable the doctors to have fuller liberty than at present, when religion is becoming, owing to disputes, a serious impediment to the convalescence of patients.

France is wakening up from her Rip van Winkle slumber, regarding her possessions in the East Indies. It appears the Republic and popular education have created a fermentation in the social relations of the populations. One party desires the maintenance of the 'status quo' and the other to be assimilated purely and simply as French citizens, like the Algerian Arabs and the Cochinchinese. The Government intends supporting the assimilation movement, but object to English, Brahmins, Hindus crossing the border and plumping for candidates at the several elections.

As a means for combating the phylloxera and preventing Unile San exporting claret to Bordeaux and champagne to Rheims, an agriculturalist proposes the preparation of wine from the fermentation of red bee pulp, after the alcohol has been extracted by distillation. He says, the best cognac is prepared from beet brandy, just as cigars are from Havanna cabbage leaves. However, the Academy of Sciences, having tasted the new product, excommunicated the nectar by bell, book and candle.

The wealthiest wards in Paris yield the best food for powder; the conscripts are better and more robust. Henceforth the 'gommoux' must be respected. Widow, very sick, to doctor, and expressing a desire to join her dear departed—'Courage, Madame, you are not dangerously ill.' She almost took up her bed and walked.

A gentleman with white whiskers and black hair has been upbraided with dying the former.

A friend of our own age is always a young man. Purchaser to shopman—'You have deceived me in the fur; it is not fox but cat-skin, as I hear mewings every time I put on my coat.'

The raffie to be held in the Exhibition a fortnight after it closes is all arranged. There will be 1,867 prizes worth one million of francs, the big one being for $100,000 francs. There will also be many prizes of exhibits, presented by the exhibitors.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

President Roça and party arrived at the Central Station yesterday morning at 7 o'clock sharp. Dr. Wilde, Minister of Justice, Dr. Zorilla, Dr. Gallio, ex-Governor of Corrientes, and many members of Congress accompanied H.B. The Vice President, Sr. Madero, the Ministers of the Interior and Foreign Affairs, several Senators and Deputies of Congress, &c. received the distinguished party at the station. A scene of friendly embracing and patting on the back ensued and when it was over the Chief Magistrate proceeded to his private residence, accompanied by several friends. President Roça resumes the reins of Government this morning.

The R.M.S. Derwent sails this afternoon, Mails close at 1 p.m. Amongst her passengers are Mr. Rom and Mr. John Moore of Lobos, one of our most prominent Hiberno-Portenos, a Director of the Bank and Municipal of Lobos: he has never been on salt water before, and goes for a tour in Europe, accompanied by his sisters in law, the Misses Gahan. We wish all the travellers a prosperous voyage and speedy return.

The 'no steamer' hitch kept the Cordillera's mails in Montevideo yesterday, but we suppose they will be here this morning. Longfellow is dead, a sad loss to the ranks of poetic genius, which are so thin in this too material age. We give his biography in another column.

The meeting of the British Hospital was held yesterday in the Schoolroom of St. John's Church. The reports and accounts were adopted, and the following gentlemen named to complete the Committee for this year:—Messrs. Salisbury, E. Casey, N. Bowser and Dr. O'Connell. We will publish the Report to-morrow.

The Volpi tragedy is now replaced by a melo-drama, in which another Ligerian, a barber named Sancho, living at Salto, is the protagonist. The story is rather an old one and presents none of the Star Chamber features of the Volpi affair. The barber of Salto shaved and clipped and curled a certain Captain Rodriguez so often that the debt of the son of Mars rose to a rather stiff sum, and he gave a 'va'le for it. When the man of letters went for his money, the 'Capit' simply kicked him out, but with such unnecessary violence that he is still in bed from the effects. The papers have got hold of the matter, and of course it adds more fuel to the flame of ill blood now evidently springing up between the Orientals and Italians. It is a vast pity, and may lead to very bad results.

Next Sunday morning, there will be no service at the Episcopal Chapel, Flores, as the Rev. Gyonb Spilsbury will preach at the estancia Negrete, at 11 o'clock. The evening service at the Chapel will take place as usual at 7.30.

In reference to the new gas burner, we hear that the famous English engineer Siemens has lately invented an intensive burner which triples or quadruples the brilliancy of the gas flame, at the same time that it renders it purely and agreeably white, absolutely steady and without the scintillation and oscillation so observable in the electric light apparatus, and which are so injurious to human sight. This improvement has lately been tried in the 'Royal Palace' Plaza in Paris with complete success, and we hear with satisfaction that the Municipality of this city, has already despatched orders for one of the machines, so that by a very simple modification of existing means, gas may maintain its supremacy as a public and private lighting agent.

A recent number of the Illustrated London News contains a whole page about Buenos Aires, with portraits of Governor Roça and Ministers of Amico and Urbina, and splendid views of the Exhibition, Plaza Victoria, the Casa Rosada and Post Office, the Sta. Felicitas chapel at Barracas, the Custom House, and the statue of San Martin, with a couple of columns describing the country. Never before have we seen so much about Buenos Aires in a London paper. The fact of the L.L.N. giving Buenos Aires a place in its columns is conclusive evidence of an increase of interest in England about this country.

The Cordillera brings one extraordinary item of news, viz. that the Dutchmen in London celebrated St. Patrick's Day with the wildest enthusiasm. We are truly glad to hear this, although Cork is not in Holland, in spite of some assertion to the contrary once made by our late lamented colleague La Tribuna. So much the worse for Holland that it is not, as Cork is a lively place and would inevitably kick up some fun in that staid region, it could be transported bodily to it. We believe our Dutch friends have no patron saint of their own, and in default of such, we must compliment them highly on having adopted St. Patrick.

We have received a letter addressed to Mr. Edward Whittaker, 'Laquinista', 154 Piedad, Our 'maquinista' is a Dutchman, and his name is not Whittaker, so we hold the letter till the lawful owner turns up. News from Ireland and the Poet Laureate's Jingo song, referred to by our London correspondent, will be found in our Supplement to-day; also the parody of the Daily News on Mr. Tennyson's effort.

We feel great pleasure in recording our rising young friend, Mr. Walter Biggs, the eminent water-colour painter. It is a presentation portrait, in water colours, from life, of Mr. William Samson, the popular agent of the Allan line of 'steamers'. We have seen many of Mr. Biggs' portraits from life since he settled here, but we doubt if he has ever painted a better one than this; the finish and shading are superb, in fact the portrait is a gem on which both the artist and sitter are equally to be congratulated. It is on view at Burgo's.

We call on the Municipality with our biggest speaking trumpet to look after the Riachuelo at once, or the dead fangs of Pestilence will inevitably be fastened on the city. Yesterday, at the Barraca Peña station, myriads of half-dead fish were to be seen leaping out of the bank from the poisoned water, gasping in their dying throes, while dozens of men and boys stood by straining their eyes on long canes and rushing up town to sell them!!!

This is truly terrible. Of what mortal use are our Health Boards and Health Inspectors, and the police and the whole posse of boobies, if such a monstrous attempt on the public health as this can go on in broad daylight? All the inhabitants of the Roça are unanimous in declaring that the distillery is the main cause of the poisoning of the water and the pestilential smell from the stream. If so, it should be closed summarily, lest the people, driven beyond endurance, take it into their heads to close it after their own fashion some fine night.

Another subject to which we wish to call our energetic Lord Mayor's immediate attention is the Chacarita Cemetery. It is in a most disgraceful condition. A subscriber who had been to visit the grave of a near and dear relative came to us yesterday begging us in the name of common decency to call Mr. Alvarez's attention to the matter. There is no fence whatever to the cemetery; animals roam over the graves at will; the photographs and crosses are smashed and thrown down; the yellow fever graves have fallen in, in fact the place is a scene of desolation and a howling wilderness. Those who have to pay for the right to bury their graves complain bitterly of this shocking state of things. It is high time that such a disgrace to the city should be remedied. Even a slight amelioration would be thankfully accepted by those whose feelings are so cruelly outraged by the present state of the Chacarita Cemetery.

Our Shaugh and Madras exchanges by the French mail contain some queer items. We take this following from the Shanghai Courier:—'The late Empress of China having recovered from her former serious illness, some half a dozen surgeons chosen by governors of provinces and sent to Peking, according to imperial instructions, to attend upon Her Majesty, have been rewarded by various appointments. One, it is announced, is to be made a tatool, or intendant of circuit, another a prefect, another a district magistrate, and so forth. This is very much as if after the recovery of the Prince of Wales from his historic illness Sir William Jenner had been made a county court judge and Sir W. Gull a stipendiary magistrate.'

Everybody went home to dinner yesterday bent on keeping a good look out for the shower of stars and planets predicted by the Rio Observatory for last night.

We are glad to note that Mr. John Clark is expected here from Valparaiso in the next steamer from the Pacific. His many friends here will be glad to welcome him after the long period since his last visit.

The Pedagogues are to be pulled up with a short turn about the religious question. The rumour ran last night that the Minister of the Interior will issue a decree to-day prohibiting the discussion of the subject in the Conference. So best for all sides.

We are glad to see that our talented young friend Mr. Henry L. Kelly, who wrote to us the other day about the immense benefit it would be to the country to federate the whole of the province of B. Aires, has written also to the Liberator, soliciting its powerful support in the good cause, which may triumph sooner than many people expect. The great drawback to the progress of this republic is too many governments.

There is a project on foot to build a monster American hotel, with every modern improvement and accommodation, in the Sierras of Tandil, to be ready when the railway reaches that place. The idea is a good one, but the business world only pay during the summer months

The session of the Provincial Senate on Tuesday only lasted for five minutes.

Let lovers of good music not forget the Quartette Society's grand concert in the Opera House to-night. It will be a treat.

The mammoth megalithic skeleton discovered at Mercedes last week turns out to have been all in the eye of a local newspaper reporter. The Director of the Museum sent an expert to look at the bones, and he reports that the whole thing is a 'sell.' What a pity.

The surveys of the Western of Santa Fe Railway are reported as finished to the Candelaria colony. This is important.

There was a mild bobby in the Provincial Senate on Tuesday afternoon, the debate on the new capital of the Province. It appears that the Government is determined to push the bare-brained scheme of Law before the 1st May. We ask with Senator Ortiz de Rosas 'what necessity is there for all this haste with a scheme that will require many long years to carry out'—if it is ever carried out at all!

Washington 18. The Chamber of Representatives just voted by 201 against 12, a bill modifying the former one voted by Senate about prohibiting Chinese immigration. According to the new project the term is reduced to 10 years, during which Chinese immigration into the United States shall be prohibited.

Madrid 19. An amended project of the Commercial Treaty with France was presented today in the Chamber of Deputies.

At a lively discussion the amendment was thrown out, approving the Treaty in the terms conceived.

beans for the new Carabassa building, they are the strongest, our builders have ever seen and in harmony with the strength and solidity of the bank that will soon occupy the site. Mr. James Kincaid of the Rio Negro is in town, he reports the camp down there in splendid condition, but the people much alarmed about the Indians; he says the Government should put more troops at various points of the river and keep all the men at Chel-Chel. We call Dr. Victoria Minister of War's attention to this matter.

OFFICIAL NOTICE

PUBLIC LAND OFFICE

AUCTION OF SECTION N° 12.

The public is advised that on MAY 11th, 12th and 13th of the present year, the lands comprising Section 12th will be sold by public auction. The Section is divided into 239 lots of 1000 hectares each, with the exception of those specified below—

HOWARD'S CELEBRATED PLOUGHS

The above represents the well known 'Eagle 75' Plough which, and other sizes, are manufactured by J. & F. HOWARD in the highest style of workmanship, and tens of thousands are in use. Several manifest improvements have been introduced. As shown in the engraving, the body clips the beam, and the 'centre draught' is also taken from the strongest part of the iron body, thus giving an additional security against the beam breaking at the bolt holes—a very common occurrence with American made Ploughs.

The above Machines kept in stock by the Principal Hardware Merchants.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne
(Ex Army Medical Staff)
IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.
CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he registered had been sworn to. Innumerable hospital physicians of London state that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's. The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

KEATING'S POWDER.
KILLS BUGS, FLEAS, MOTHS, BEETLES, &c.
THIS POWDER is so called 'HARLEST' to ANIMAL LIFE, but it is invaluable in destroying FLEAS, MOTHS, BEETLES, &c. in every other species of insect. It is also invaluable for destroying Fleas in their dogs, as also ladies for their dresses.
THIS ARTICLE has found so GREAT a success that it has been ordered to vend a so-called article in imitation. THE PUBLIC are CAUTIONED that the time of the genuine powder bear the autograph of THOMAS KEATING.
